

Alışan Logistics increased its CPD score above the global average

In the Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP) 2023 rating results, Alışan Logistics' climate change score was announced as "B-". With this score, Alışan Logistics exceeded the global average. Damla Alışan, CEO of Alışan Logistics, said, "Our goal is to clear the sustainability steps we have taken every year and to raise our score higher. We carry out many projects to reduce the emissions we create, from increasing combined freight transportation trips to including the use of renewable energy sources in our energy consumption. At the same time, our contributions to suitable afforestation areas throughout Türkiye and our efforts to reduce the use of natural resources continue uninterrupted. We will continue to further integrate the concept of sustainability into our ways of doing business and thus create a more livable future for the generations after us."
